

Course Review

---

These three areas—Curriculum and Instruction/Linguistic Accommodations, Connecting ELPS to TELPAS, and the Leader Pathway tool—are important considerations in creating tangible educational experiences for ELLs. As leaders, understanding and supporting teachers while paying careful attention to balancing these three areas is essential, as one cannot stand alone without support from the others.

The intentional consideration of each area will allow us to create successful English language learning environments for all students.